Constable Adan Ballesteros 2nd Annual Blood Drive

Our Blood Drive this year was a great success. We collected more blood than last year. Stay tuned for the same time next year.

Speaking of Olympics, our very own Sgt Greg Papst won a gold medal in the Texas Police

Games held in Brownsville, Texas from June 16 through June 20, 2010. The gold medal represented first place in the bench press, 198 lb weight class, age 45 to 49. Papst bench pressed 345 pounds to win. This year's games were hosted by the Brownsville Police Department for the Texas Police Federation. In Texas, the events began in 1975 and have been a yearly event since then. The purpose of the Texas Police Athletic Federation is to promote the physical fitness for members of the Law Enforcement Community of Texas, and other States, by promoting athletic competition through the annual Texas Police Games! The categories are by age and in diverse events such as saltwater fishing, submission wrestling, archery, 5K and 10K runs, shooting, basketball, volleyball, dominoes and much more! Law enforcement agencies all over Texas are eligible to compete.
